A ROUND OF TALK.

In Nineteen Hundred and Six

There are numerous things I am eager to see.
In Nineteen Hundred and Six.
Some things that are needed, I think you'll agree.
In Nineteen Hundred and Six.
Reforms in the city, insurance and freight—
And these we must have or forfeit in our fair.

In Nineteen Hundred and Six.
The men we elect to high office must.
In Nineteen Hundred and Six.
Stand firm for justice and not for a trust.

In Nineteen Hundred and Six.
The money that people save up for the day.
When rain shall descend from the clouds thick and gray.
Must never be used in the "no way."

In Nineteen Hundred and Six.
I want to see senators stand firm and true.
In Nineteen Hundred and Six.
And give to the people the law over.

In Nineteen Hundred and Six.
I want to see Platt walking up to confess.
He's giving the senate to save his nose.
And solemnly promise no more to transgress.

In Nineteen Hundred and Six.
We would like to see Panama dirt quickly dry.
In Nineteen Hundred and Six.
And fewer picketers who are living so high.

In Nineteen Hundred and Six.
Instead of the horde of officials now there.
And talking "sea level" and working so rare.
We'd like a canal that is built on the square.

In Nineteen Hundred and Six.
And one other thing we would joyfully hail.
In Nineteen Hundred and Six—
A lot of big grafters and thieves thrust in jail.

In Nineteen Hundred and Six.
Give us less of "big sticks" in a poor fellow's case.
And more of "big sticks" on the men in high place.
Give us more of "big sticks" to rain stars in the face.

In Nineteen Hundred and Six.
—The Commoner.

ORACIO UNION.—Some of the tobacco growers up in the Blue Grass have started a movement to organize what is to be known as the Barley Tobacco Growers Union whose principal object is to stop the planting of any tobacco for the year 1907. A meeting was held at Versailles on Saturday at which the following compact was adopted, copies of which will be presented at mass-meetings to be called in every county seat throughout the Barley district and then circulated for signatures. We, the undersigned members of the Barley Tobacco Growers' Union of Kentucky, do, by our attached signatures, acknowledge our selves obligated and bound to obey all orders of the Board of Control, to be composed of one member from each county, and to do all in our power to promote the welfare and success of the union. Said union is an organization whose object and powers relate and are confined to control of the area of Barley tobacco to be grown during and after the year 1907, it being contemplated that no Barley tobacco what ever shall be grown in said year 1907.

IMPRAGICAL.—The plan to curtail the production of tobacco as outlined above might work very well among certain rich land owners and others who take it out in "theorizing" about the best way to grow and to sell tobacco but to the hundreds of tenants and real hard working tobacco growers the scheme is impractical. The poor tenant whose daily bread is dependent on his crop cannot afford to miss a season's yield. It is doubtful too if much better prices would be realized if there were no crops raised for a year so long as there is no competition in buying and then it is probable that the abandonment of the crop for a season would lead to the substitution of other tobacco for Barley, and permanent injury to the Barley tobacco would follow.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION.—The Louisville Leaf Tobacco Market.

The record of receipts and sales of leaf tobacco on the Louisville market for the year 1905 shows the largest business since 1902. Public sales for this year closed last Saturday, Dec. 23d. Secretary Green's official report of that date showed that the total sales of the year amounted to 140,044 hhds. During this week about 1,000 hhds. were sold privately by the various warehouses, making the total sales for the year 141,044 hhds., against 100,441 hhds. sold in 1904 and 104,410 hhds. sold in 1903 and 104,327 hhds. sold in 1902. The total receipts up to last Saturday were 90,535 hhds. During this week about 500 hhds. more were received, making the total receipts for 1905, 100,035 hhds., against 83,263 hhds. received in 1904 and 79,703 hhds. received in 1903.

The total receipts this year were 14,831 hhds. against 12,967 in 1904 and 17,889 hhds. rejected in 1903.

Of the total sales up to last Saturday, 86,474 hhds. hhds. were Barley and 54,570 hhds. were dark tobacco. Up to last Saturday we had sold 10,829 hhds. of 1905 crop, against 3,004 hhds. of 1904 crop sold up to corresponding date of last year.—Farmers Home Journal

Notice.
All persons having claims against the estate of David L. Payne, deceased, will present same properly proven before me at my office in Springfield on or before Jan. 15th, 1906 for settlement.

LAYBROOK.—The Louisville Herald in speaking of the Senator's race and the attitude of the various representatives in that contest says: "The attitude of W. D. Claybrook, of Washington county, in coming out in a card for Payne when it was generally understood that he was pledged to Blackburn has also caused comment, and it is also said that he was pledged to W. B. Haldeman. Mr. Claybrook says the sentiment of his district is for Payne, and that he wants to vote the sentiment of his district, although in the other camps it is believed that the vacancy to be caused by Dave Smith's retirement from Congress has something to do with his support of Payne."

Another Good Man Gone Wrong.
He neglected to take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first signs of kidney trouble, hoping it would wear away, and he was soon a victim of Bright's disease. There is danger in delay, but if Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at once the symptoms will disappear, the kidneys are strengthened and you are soon sound and well. A. R. Ross of Morgantown, Ind., had to get up ten or twelve times in the night, and had a severe backache and pains in the kidneys and was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

Another week has glided by and it comes time for us to look down a few more happenings of the past week. I often think how happy our dear friends in the far West are when the dear old News-Leader reaches them they wonder what will be in the Leader this week. If all the readers are like myself they read very time. Fellow correspondents are all ready to begin another year's work.

Our county paper? I for one will endeavor to gather up a few items every week and will assist the editor every way possible.

Our little town is wide awake and up to date in everything the undertakes. Fear not neighboring towns, don't think we sleep from sun down until sun up. Nay not so. We have a hustling physician that travels any hour during the night he may be called. If there is any one sick or afflicted you see the kind neighbors going at all hours to administer to their wants and why say the "Burg" is so far out of date. We have had one of the best public schools taught at this place by Prof. J. T. Prather and Mrs. Wm. Sheemaker, that has been taught for the past 10 years. Not a fault or complaint was made by either parent or pupil. Rev. Yung, of Madison county, has done a grand and noble work for the only church we have during the past year. Our merchants are doing a flourishing business. Our flouring mill still runs on its work. Our two popular blacksmiths are so busy they turn out work for their fellow workers. There are new dwellings going up which add greatly to the town. The telephone exchange will soon be completed and then we will have news for the News-Leader.

W. B. Shirley and wife have returned from Lawrenceburg. Miss Emma Melroy, a popular young lady from Sweet Retreat is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Melroy.

Miss Alice Gray, of Polin, spent the holidays with Miss Sallie Suberland.

Mrs. J. M. Brown and daughter, Mattie, Miss Cora Trent and Ray Wells spent last Wednesday at Kirklawn.

Mr. Charlie Hendren, of Illinois, visited Miss Mayme Merritt last Tuesday.

Dr. W. W. Hiatt and wife spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Trent.

We are pleased to report Mr. A. B. Wells and Maxwell Jones better at this writing.

Mrs. J. W. Sutherland and daughter, Myrtle, are on the sick list.

Mr. T. J. Miller and family, Ed Birch and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy dined with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gibson Xmas day.

Dr. J. T. Sutherland is spending the week with his son at Harrodsburg.

For Sutton, of DeKalb, Ill., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Will Sims.

Mr. Horace Grider and family have moved to their home in the country and Peo Gibson has moved in with Mr. John Grider.

We understand there is to be a good many moves soon. If some of our prominent citizens would erect about a dozen cottages near our neighbors would have some place to move. There is not enough dwellings here for the renters and business people.

We have a question put to us for the News-Leader by a star catcher it is this: "What relation would your uncle's brother be to you and not to your uncle." Our friend "Lilac" was asked this question some time ago. Guess he could reply now.

Trusting all the readers of the News-Leader have had a merry Christmas and wishing each and every one a joyful New Year. The next letter I write will be in 1906.

Four Hundred Bites.
St. Vincent's Infant Asylum Chicago, shelters homeless waifs awaiting adoption, and there are nearly 400 babies there. Sister Julia writes: "I cannot say too much in praise of Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. It is safe and sure. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and insist upon having it as it is a safe remedy and certain in results. Refuse substitutes. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store."

Crushed to Death.
Joe Moran, a colored laborer, was caught under a falling wall at Fourteenth and Main streets yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, and suffered injuries which resulted in his death yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. He was one of the gang employed in tearing down a building to make room for the new Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis railroad freight depot. The wall began to totter, and he failed to seek a place of safety in time. The lower portion of his body was badly bruised, and he sustained internal injuries.

Workmen went to the assistance of Moran, and succeeded in extricating him. He did not lose consciousness, and was taken to the City Hospital. An hour before his death he asked to be removed to his home in the rear of 1323 Thirteenth street. He had been in the house but a few minutes when he expired.—Times

STRANGE CARAVAN.—A strange caravan passed through town on last Wednesday coming from Bardonia and headed for Lebanon. It was a family of movers headed by an old man by the name of Hamp. They are making the journey from Athens, Branch county, Michigan, to Lillian, Tennessee, where Mr. Hamp and his three grown sons will engage in the lumber business. The Hamp family traveled in four cars, each drawn by a span of strong, well-kept horses.

These houses on wheels are well fitted up and furnished nicely. Two of them are used for parlor and bedrooms, the others serve as kitchen and supply car. The "parlor" is carpeted and contains an organ, stove and other articles of furniture that make it a very comfortable apartment. Mr. Hamp and his family left Michigan about five weeks ago and continued their journey interrupted only by a few days' stopovers. Mr. Hamp is said to possess considerable wealth and has been engaged in the lumber business for many years, he now being about 65 years of age. Timber becoming scarce in his native State, he concluded to seek other fields. In consequence he has taken up a two thousand-acre tract in Tennessee.

SELECT OFFICERS.—The Springfield Lodge, No. 20, R. and A. O. U. held its annual election of officers last week and the following were elected for the ensuing year: W. A. Waters, W. M.; George Colvin, S. W.; Wm. Harrison Williams, J. W. M.; H. M. Grimes, S. D.; N. G. Marks, J. D.; E. C. Mayes, Secy.; A. C. McNeill, Treas.; B. J. Hardin, S. D. The lodge is in a very prosperous condition and is growing in membership rapidly.

New County May be Formed.
The following special from Frankfort is taken from the Louisville Times. Preliminary steps for the carving out of a new county from the counties of Grayson, Breckinridge and Ohio are being taken here to day, and if it is found that this new county can be formed in compliance with the law a bill will be introduced in the General Assembly at the coming session. N. M. Mercer, of Breckinridge county, is here in the interest of the establishment of the new county, and he is going over the records with H. H. Young, of Louisville, who will do the surveying. It is found that the new county can be made.

The law requires that a new county must have a population of not less than 12,000, and an area not less than 400 square miles. The new county would cover the ten miles from Frankfort to the Ohio river. It is not certain if the line of the new county can be run so as to comply with these conditions. But the population of the three adjoining counties is sufficient and the area is large enough to flow of the requirements of the law. Ford county, which would be a new county, will be the county of new county and the remainder of that section of the county of Grayson that the law requires that the new county must have a population of not less than 12,000, and an area not less than 400 square miles.

A Brilliant Affair

Next in importance to being a mason is the pleasure of being a guest of masons, was probably the verdict of those fortunate enough to be present at the annual banquet given at the Walton Hotel on last Friday evening by the Springfield Lodge No. 50 F. & A. Masons. The affair was altogether the most pleasant event of the kind to occur in Springfield for many days and was thoroughly enjoyed by the assembly. About 150 guests were gathered in the dining hall which was tastefully decorated with festoons of evergreens suspended from the center of the dining room to the four walls and garlands of evergreens were twined around the columns in the centre of the room. An orchestra of four pieces discoursed sweet music
during the evening.

An elaborate six course lunch,
delicious and dainty in quality and well served preceded the "Feast of reason and flow of soul" which was under the direction of Mr. W. A. Waters, who made a most excellent toastmaster.
His free and happy remarks as the called for responses to the various toasts serving to keep up the flow of good cheer which prevailed throughout the entire evening.

Rev. J. P. Scruggs, Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky was called on to respond to the toast "The Ladies" which he did in a very pleasing manner, although he explained that he was little prepared to handle so weighty a subject.
Having been called on at a late hour to fill the program left vacant by the absence of Prof.
George Colvin.

Mr. T. Scott Mayes gave "A Study in Wages" and elicited much applause in his treatment of the subject. Mr. Mayes' more serious remarks on the good of masonry were also well received.
Prof. T. C. Cunningham was called on to make a few remarks on the "Relation of Masonry to Society." His remarks showed a deep study of the subject and an appreciation of the true benefits of masonry in its relation to the world.

The guest of honor, Hon. R.
W. Miller, of Richmond, was down for a response to the toast
"Kentucky." Mr. Miller in a talk of about fifteen minutes duration completely captivated his audience. His tribute to Kentucky and her people was as beautiful a piece of word painting as one often hears. Mr. Miller is a natural and easy orator with a wonderful command of language. His speech contained many historical facts which were attractively presented.

Rev. Wm. Harrison Williams responded to the toast "Are you a Mason?" Mr. Williams made the lot of an evening with his fund of anecdotes which were exceedingly well told. Proceeding in a more serious vein he gave an insight into the beauties and benefits of masonry and its relation to religion and to man kind.
